Wixen Music Publishing, Inc.

Dear Esteemed Client:

As you may be aware, many countries have a different approach to sync licensing than we have in the United States. In the United States, with the exception of "fair use" and public broadcasting, all uses of copyrighted works require approval from the publishers and master owner.

In the UK, they have what is referred to as the MCPS blanket sync licensing "scheme." Previously, all of our clients' songs have gone into this blanket license automatically and it was nearly impossible to collect royalty earnings for record sales and streaming without being affiliated with MCPS. Because of this, BBC, ITV, Sky, Channel 4, Channel 5 and most terrestrial stations were able to use any of your songs and pay a per minute rate based on the station, hour, etc. without getting explicit permission to use a song and without having to negotiate a willing buyer/willing seller fee.

We have attached a blanket license recent rate sheet with the Pound per minute rates. The blanket scheme also covers DVD, digital uses, and certain types of promotion and advertising. (Note that permission is needed, however, if the song will be used in opening and/or closing credits or if the program is going to reach beyond the UK.)

As a real-life example of how the scheme plays out, we did an analysis for one highly successful contemporary client, and we learned that his songs were used in programs 160 times in a one-year period and that for such use, he only received a total of £70.13. Clearly the fees paid for uses made without explicit permission under the scheme are negligible.

Wixen Music and other publishers (ABKCO for example, who handle the Rolling Stones' repertoire) have been working for quite some time to get their clients the right of approval over these types of uses and the corresponding fees. Many clients have complained of tawdry or offensive uses of their songs, and of sub-market license fees. We have recently gotten MCPS to agree to give approval and quote rights on a per song (or entire catalog basis) to our clients. This is being implemented as each stations' broadcast license renews with MCPS. BBC is the first and probably the largest to be required to clear all music.

As the new default, UK TV and film companies now have to come to us regardless of the type of use to get an approval and a quote. The flip side of this control, though, is that unless a production is willing to go through this extra approval and quote process, they may now end up choosing music that is automatically useable under the blanket license scheme. So we need you to balance the benefit of the approval/fee model against the detriment of carte blanche uses and pre-specified fees and to instruct us as to which if any or all of your songs you want us to put back in the blanket license scheme. If you don't contact us, all songs will continue to remain outside of the MCPS blanket licensing sync scheme. It is our understanding, too, that if you so instruct us, your newly released material can be put into the blanket scheme, and later on be removed once the songs have (hopefully) become big hits.

Please read over the included BBC rate chart to get a better idea of typical blanket rates and let us know if you would like us to add any or all of your songs back into the MCPS blanket sync licensing scheme at this time. If you have any questions relating to this, please don't hesitate to reach out to me.

On another matter, we have resolved a dispute involving our clients' songs with Peloton. Peloton specializes in fitness equipment and corresponding technology and is fast becoming one of the largest and most important music/artist discovery platforms. Your statement may include income for a settlement for actual uses (within the statement) and/or income for unidentified uses (on the cover page). All future uses of your music by Peloton will reflect promotional artist chyrons and permit cross-platform integrations with various streaming services. You will also receive royalties for the use of your songs (as applicable) on future statements.

Thanks and happy royalty statement.

Sincerely,

Randall D. Wixen
