To: All Wixen Music Clients

RE: Ferrick v. Spotify USA Inc.

As you know, Wixen Music Publishing, Inc. settled with Spotify last year on all songs that were opted out of the Ferrick v. Spotify USA Inc. class action lawsuit. Your Quarter 3 statement contains an additional portion of that settlement.

Most recently, the Ferrick v. Spotify case settled for $43.45 million and there is a list containing millions of songs that may be eligible for compensation. Many of our clients do have songs on that list and we are going to claim income for those unsettled songs to the greatest extent possible.

The court is requiring each individual client fill out and sign the enclosed Third-Party Filer Authorization Form. In order to collect as much money as we can for our clients, we ask that you fill out the enclosed Third-Party Authorization Form and send back to us no later than November 1, 2019. If we don't have this form when we file, we will be unable to claim any of your works that might be in this settlement.

In addition to the Third-Party Filer Authorization Form, we are required to include a Copyright Registration Number for each song we claim. We are compiling as many of these as possible, but if you have any of your Copyright Registration Numbers in your possession, it would ensure we are able to claim as many songs on your behalf as possible if you sent those to us. The greater the number of Copyright Registration Numbers we receive, the more we will be able to collect on your behalf. Again, if possible, please provide these numbers no later than November 1, 2019 and send Third Party Filer Authorization Forms and Copyright Registration numbers to the following address:

If you have any further questions about this, please feel free to contact me.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Brooke Suomi
